Where Leaders Are Born:

Text: 1 Corinthians 9:24-27

1. Running for God requires us to be _____ and _____ in all things.

2. As Christians, we are to _____ and _____ our race without _____.

3. In your own words, explain how running the Boston Marathon compares to the race that we are called to run as followers of Christ (Explain in at least 4 to 6 sentences)

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

4. What happens at “Heart Break Hill?” _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

5. What is “Heart Break Hill” designed for? How does it compare to the “process” that God puts us through before being sent into our destiny? (Explain in your own words in at least 6 to 8 sentences.)

6. At some point in running our race we will come to “Heart Break Hill” and it will seem as if the finish line is nowhere in sight. How does God call us to respond to “Heart Break Hill.” (Explain in your own words in at least 8 to 10 sentences.)

7. There is a _____ at the end of “Heart Break Hill.”

8. Most people _____ _____ at “Heart Break Hill”

9. Real _____ are born at “Heart Break Hill”

10. For _____ to be born in our life, we must get over “Heart Break Hill” without becoming _____ towards God.

Additional Notes:_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____